

Vale of Glamorgan Walking Festival 2020

Name of Walk: From Castle to Church

Charge: £3 per adult

Walk Details: A lovely all day walk from Barry Castle along the Glamorgan Heritage Coast to Rhoose Point (The most Southerly point in Wales). Then into the Rural Vale via farm tracks and quiet lanes, along the Llancarfan Valley to the village of Llancarfan to view the fantastic medieval wall paintings in St Cadoc's Church. Returning via Pen-Onn Farm, Penmark Village and Porthkerry Country Park West Ridge.

Hospitality: Shop in Rhoose, Pub in Llancarfan.

OVERVIEW

Distance / terrain: 12 Miles, plenty of stiles, clifftop path and some quiet country roads.

Date: Friday 22nd May 2020

Timing: Start: 10:00 Return approx: 16:30

Leader: William Milne 07528701952

JOINING

Meet at: Barry Castle, Park Road, Barry CF62 6NW

Map ref: ST 101 671

Bring: Sufficient food and drink to last all day, including a mid morning snack and packed lunch.

Restrictions: No Dogs

TRAVEL & PARKING

Travel Directions: Park Road is in the Westend Suburb of Barry, off the roundabout junction on the A4050 Park Crescent, St Nicholas Road. CF62 7RG

Public Transport: Bus 96 stops on Park Crescent. <https://www.cardicus.com/services> . Barry Railway Station is a short walk away, along Canon Street and Old Village Road. <https://dwrail.wales>

Free Parking: Plenty of on street parking close to Barry Castle.